Dear Mrs. Wilson,

Now that I'm back home, I am writing to thank you most warmly for your kindness given to me during my visit to Moore High School. I am very grateful for the time you spent to make my stay in Britain as interesting as possible. The experience with the "One World" activity is a most memorable one. It gave me a good opportunity to share and discuss opinions of common interest with students from around the world. It helped me to know the culture from different countries better.

Please let me know when you book the flight for your visit to us early next month. I'll be happy to meet you at the airport.

Looking forward to meeting you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Li Ming
