IV

In February, my teacher told us on the Woodmen of America speech contest and made us ~~to~~ work hard for it. After the class gave its presentations, my teacher picked Three to five students to go on to the next level. I am one of Them! Then the top five from each of the three fifth-grade class competed. The top seven would be the finalists; again. I was one of them! The top seven worked hardly. We had one month to practise. March 15 rolled around. After I knew it, I was in our school gym with people all around, include the judges, listening  $\wedge$  every word I said. I was the sixth to present. I was soon done. How a relief! I knew the top seven got prizes, but I still wanted that honor. After the seven person finished, the judge made their final decisions. They announce  $\wedge$  winners. The first-place winner was Kelli! I finally win first place!
