My Idea of an English Month

I like the idea of English Month. I think we can do lots of interesting things during the month. Firstly, we can each read a good story book and talk about it in groups. We can share what we learn from the books we read. Secondly, we can watch some English films. There are many really good films shown in cinemas now. We can not only know the stories told by the films but also learn English in real language use situations. Thirdly, we can learn to sing some English songs. Most of our students love singing and want to sing in English. I'm sure the English Month is going to be very successful.
